Dear Dean Teele:

Thank you very much for your letter of 30 November inviting me to speak at your 31st
Annual National Business Conference on 2 June 1961.

I will be glad to attend on this occasion and I accept your kind invitation with much pleasure. In the meantime, I will look forward to hearing further from Mr. Lewis.

With my best wishes for the holiday season.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Dean Teele:

Thank you for your letter of 30 November 1960, inviting me to speak next 9 June 1961 at the Graduate School of Business Administration at Harvard University.

It is still too early, in relation to my schedule for next spring, for me now to say definitely that I can join you on that interesting occasion, nor can I commit myself at this time on a specific subject.

I do thank you for letting me know of your interest, and I will be in further touch with you and Mr. Ralph Lewis after my schedule is more firm.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
